CAN YOU GUESS.

Here's a Chance to Make
Ten Dollars Easy.

All You Have to Do Is to Pick the Winners in the Coming
Primary.

Just for the interest attached to a guessing contest and to put a little more interest into the coming campaign for County officers, The News will give its readers a chance to make ten dollars and have a little fun at guessing on the side.

To the person making the first nearest correct guess of the winners in the Democratic Primary Election which will be held in this county on Saturday, June 1st, 1901, The News will present a ten dollar gold piece. The conditions of the contest are simple. Old subscribers and new subscribers who pay $2 on their subscriptions will each be entitled to a guess, and to as many guesses as they pay year's subscription. If no one guesses correctly, the first one who guesses the closest to all the winners will receive the ten dollars.

You intend to pay your subscription anyway, and you may as well pay before the first day of June and have a chance of getting your money back, besides gaining the distinction of knowing more about the political situation than your neighbors.

Each guess will be registered when received as to the exact day and minute. No one will be permitted to see how any one else's guesses. In guessing only offices on the ballot are to be considered.

Kentucky Stock Report.

(Reported by Commissioner Nall.)

The correspondents of this department give very full reports this month from all parts of the State and enable the Commissioner to present to the public what he believes to be the true condition of the wheat and clover crops, the true condition and relative number cattle, sheep and hogs, and the prospective acreage of the staple crops for the ensuing year.

The percentages confirm the statement made in the report of this bureau for last December, viz.: "The prospect is not favorable for a full average wheat crop in this State next year." Indeed, the unfavorable winter has tended to increase the discouraging outlook of the fall, as shown by present reports, indicating a condition of 63 as compared with 57 then. The effect of the dry and the want of snow as a covering to protect against the recent sudden cold snaps are both to be taken into account. Just what vitality is left can not be estimated until a few days of warm, growing weather is felt. It may be safely predicted, though, that the crop can be anywhere near an average one. Barley and rye are both below an average in condition, while winter-sown oats, with a reduced acreage, show satisfactory condition. The outlook is favorable for the average acreage of tobacco, and most of the plant beds have been sown about the usual time. Some few to be sown yet.

Clover shows almost a desperate condition, and as this condition is getting to be chronic, it is not to be wondered that farmers are turning to some other crop to take its place. The reports place condition, clover 59, stock peas 111. Live stock have wintered well and are in good condition, rating in general 97, but cattle, sheep and hogs fall short in numbers compared with last year, the latter falling to 78.

Prospect for fruit is good at present, but, of course, the dangers of spring frosts are to be encountered and it must be expected that there will be more or less damage, even if the buds have escaped winter freezes.

Off Cerigo, the island at the southern end of Greece, divers are bringing up art treasures that were sunk 200 years before Christ. Lucian tells of a ship laden with art spoils that went down on the voyage from Athens to Rome, and it is believed that the wreck has been found now. Besides many bronze statues a life-size bronze statue resembling the Hermes of Praxiteles, has been brought up. Some objects are excellently preserved, but others are corroded.

A NEW NAVAL ARCH.

NEW YORK'S DEWEY MEMORIAL TO BE REPRODUCED IN STONE.

It Will Be Placed in Battery Park as a Water Gateway to the Nation and a Memorial to the Gallant Deeds of Our Jack Tar.

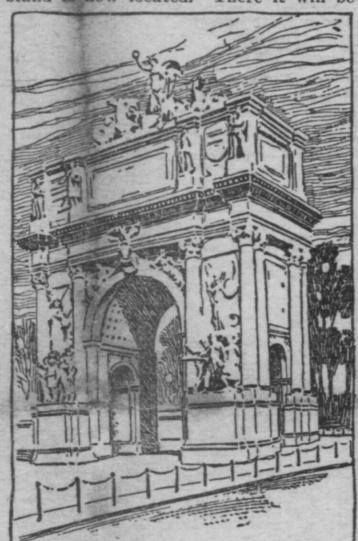

Widespread satisfaction has been the result of the announcement that the new naval arch in Madison square, New York, is to be perpetuated. But it will not be erected on its original site and will be a memorial to the heroic deeds of the navy as a whole rather than a monument to the hero of Manila Bay.

The arch is to be built in Battery park, New York, and it is planned eventually to connect the arch with a landing place at the water's edge by an avenue which shall be flanked by the statues of naval heroes. This will serve as a magnificent water gate to the city and to the entire country.

Of course it must be remembered that such a monument cannot be built in a day, nor even a year. The public is ever a creature of impulse, and unless the men in charge of the affair are full of energy and enthusiasm the work is bound to lag. Even at the best it takes many a month to collect enough funds to warrant the beginning of a notable public memorial, as witness the length of time it took to begin work on the Grant tomb even after its erection was all planned.

In the case assurances have been given by wealthy residents of New York to the naval memorial committee, now in charge of the work of bringing about the construction of the arch, that they will not permit the plan to fail. It is understood that J. Pierpont Morgan is a leader in the movement. Admiral Dewey has given his approval to the change in the character of the structure from a "Dewey" to a "naval" arch. The site has been selected, and Mayor Van Wyck has pledged the earnest co-operation of his city in the furtherance of the project.

In speaking of the arch Mr. Park Benjamin, vice president of the Naval Academy Alumni association, says: "We decided to take the arch that the people had approved, but to make it larger. With the municipal arch commissioner the beginning of the water front sites and decided upon Battery park. The arch commission told us that if the park board approved it also would give its approval. The site we have chosen is in an open space near where the band stand is now located. There it will be a water gateway to the nation."

NAVAL ARCH FOR BATTERY PARK, NEW YORK. Come a water gate at the place of entrance not only to the city from the sea, but to the whole country, because it will be at its greatest seaport. Thus located, the arch will be suggestive of the guardianship of the navy.

"It will mark the place for the reception by the city authorities of any distinguished visitor arriving on our shores. Its site is near enough to the water's edge to permit a special approach to be built hereafter if this is thought desirable. It is so near the existing landing now being constructed at pier 1 that it will be possible to lay out a broad road leading from that landing directly to the arch. If the Erickson statue should be moved to a point beside that road and in time other statues added, the path would be appropriately accentuated."

Mr. Benjamin thinks the arch will not cost more than $500,000. Mayor Van Wyck thinks it ought to cost $1,000,000 and that the government should make an appropriation for half this amount. In consulting architects and sculptors it has been decided, and very properly, to give the preference to the men who without remuneration devoted their time and labor to the design of the arch. And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the Lord, and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes nor approve after the hearing of his ears."

"The verse that President Hayes kissed was accidental and proved to be prophetic. 'His enemies encompassed him like bees, but he would not destroy them.' 'President Arthur and President Cleveland did not make any selection, and the passages they kissed are unknown. Mr. Cleveland took the oath at both inaugurations upon a little red Bible which was given him by his mother when he was a boy."

The committee having the work in charge is made up of Admiral Erben, Park Benjamin, Lewis F. Nixon, Thomas E. W. Yule, Rear Admiral and sculptors (retired), W. Butler Duncan, Jr.; E. J. Berwind, Robert S. Sloane of Oswego and Lieutenant Commander Cheney (retired).

The Man Who Bumps You. When one woman bumps into another on the street, no remark is made by either, and in two minutes the matter is forgotten. Not so with two men, however. When they fall back from the bump, each one remarks:

"Scuse me, air."

And then together:

"Oh, certainly!"

And again:

"All my fault."

And once more:

"Very careless of me, to be sure."

And then each one bows and nods and goes on his way, but even after months the memory of the bump is not forgotten. Should they happen to see each other on a street car each one flushes up, greets his teeth and says to himself:

"That's that old bump of mine who ran into me the other day, and wouldn't I just like to punch his head!"—Chicago News.

POLES MAY RISE AGAIN.

Warsaw Said to Be a Volcano Which May Burst Out Any Time.

The Berliner Correspondenz, which, after a series of articles showing that an uprising in German Poland was inevitable this spring, suddenly became silent, has again renewed its attacks, this time dealing with statistics. In the meantime the police have been making elaborate investigations, particularly in the province of West Prussia, and, although many arrests have been made, many books and papers in the Polish language have been confiscated. The Correspondenz is astonished that the authorities in Russian Poland have not heeded their warning, for, according to this organ, Warsaw is nurturing a volcano which at any moment may set all central Europe aflame. The local court of Strassburg, in West Prussia, has ordered the confiscation of a photograph of which the following is part of the official description:

"The picture represents Christ sitting under the cross and lovingly consoling a woman dressed in black and laden with chains, who is kneeling before him. The flags lying beside the figure of Christ contain the dates of the three partitions of Poland, 1772, 1793 and 1795. The dates 1794, 1830, 1848 and 1863, which are inscribed in large figures edged with white on the border of the woman's skirt, refer to the four great Polish rebellions. The date May 3, 1791, is that of a promulgation of the Polish constitution, etc. The legend, in Polish, 'The moment of redemption is not yet come,' also figures in the picture."

According to the most recent anti-Polish article in the Correspondenz, Poles have not only increased in numbers in the eastern provinces of Prussia, which once formed part of the Polish kingdom, but have established large Polish colonies in Silesia and in the west of Prussia. It declares that between 1890 and 1898 the Polish speaking population of Westphalia increased from 27,000 to 150,000, that of the Rhine provinces from 6,000 to 22,000 and that of Silesia from 904,000 to 1,023,000. The census of 1890 gave 3,000,000 as the number of Prussian subjects who spoke Polish as their native language, while the recent census will probably show a great increase over this number. On the other hand, the paper points out that the German colonies in the Polish districts have gradually declined in strength and energy and that in many towns the administration of affairs is entirely in the hands of the Poles, who are thus able to devote the local funds to defraying the expense of teaching the Polish language in schools, which, designated as "private," are in reality supported by the community. The paper places the number of Polish Nationalists at over 100,000, while the Nationalist societies have increased in the last ten years from 300 to 904.

THE INAUGURATION OATH.

Verses of the Bible Kissed by Presidents.

"It has been customary at inaugurations," says the Washington correspondent of the Chicago Record, "for the president or some friend to select the chapter at which he shall press his lips, passages that are particularly appropriate being chosen. That selected by Mr. McKinley to kiss when he took the inaugural oath in 1897 was unusually appropriate. It read: 'Give me new wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people, for who can judge this, thy people, that is so great.' 'President McKinley not only selected this passage from the holy Scriptures because of its remarkable appropriateness, but in his inaugural address twice, at the beginning and the end, acknowledged divine sovereignty and invoked the guidance of Omnipotent power. 'The verse that General Grant kissed was equally appropriate and is found in the eleventh chapter of Isaiah, as follows: 'And the spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord. And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the Lord, and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes nor approve after the hearing of his ears.' 'The verse that President Hayes kissed was accidental and proved to be prophetic. 'His enemies encompassed him like bees, but he would not destroy them.' 'President Arthur and President Cleveland did not make any selection, and the passages they kissed are unknown. Mr. Cleveland took the oath at both inaugurations upon a little red Bible which was given him by his mother when he was a boy."

Female Legislative Clerks.

The introduction in the Montana house of a resolution for the appointment of two more women as clerks gave rise to an interesting discussion the other day. One member asserted that there were already 25 women clerks, who did little but sit around the committee rooms all day, reading novels or doing fancy work and drawing $5 a day. Another member told of a struggle he had to persuade one out of a bevy of 15 of these clerks to do a little work for him on a typewriter.

THE BOURBON NEWS.

PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY AND FRIDAY

SWIFT CHAMP, EDITOR AND OWNER

Friday, March 15, 1901.

Let Us Have Harmony.

Harmony in the ranks of the Democratic party is more to be desired at the present time than the individual welfare of any member of the party. Democracy in Bourbon seems to be suffering more now from the ill advised actions of some of its so-called adherents than from any other cause. Let every true Democrat from now on until after the election do all that he can to promote harmony in the party, even if it is at the cost of a little self sacrifice on his part, and the Republican party in Bourbon will be as a mere will o' the wisp. Of course, this advice is applicable only to Democrats. Unfortunately there are traitors within the party lines, who, professing to be Democrats, are really wolves in sheep's clothing. The wind of political patronage sways them as easily as a wisp of straw nods before a June zephyr. This friction within the ranks of Democracy causes the wily Republican to laugh in his sleeve, and is really the only stay which he has to grasp to save him from political destruction. Good natured rivalry before the primaries is to be desired, and is really beneficial to the party, but trickery which a man in business would scorn to stoop to, is to be regretted and advised against by every Democrat who has the best wishes of the party at heart.

Patronize Home Merchants.

Again the News wishes to urge upon the citizens of Paris and the County to patronize their home merchants, in preference to traveling fakers and merchants in other cities. The News has no selfish motives in given this advice. There is hardly a day but some merchant urges it to print an item warning the people of the traveling fakers. We seldom fail to accede to their request, although very often the merchant who makes the request does not advertise in the paper. There is no doubt but what Paris is way behind the times, and there is no one to blame but the people themselves.

A Commercial club was organized last week, and the News earnestly hopes it will be the means of putting a little life and ambition into the people. The News pledges itself to do all in its power to advance the move, and its columns are open to any communication bearing upon the subject of the improvement and development of Paris and the County.

SCIENTISTS now say that wealth is disease. Here's giving notice right now that we will never submit to being vaccinated.

The changeable condition of the weather for the past two or three days was only a little rehearsal to prepare for St. Patrick's Day on Sunday.

The trustees of Kentucky University, Lexington, have appealed to Andrew Carnegie for a donation to establish a library in that city.

The young Duchess of Marlborough, who was Miss Constance Vanderbilt, is showing her grit and good common sense by refusing the hospitality of the Prince of Monaco, who is the head of the great gambling institution, Monte Carlo. She says she is morally opposed to gambling and for no consideration will associate with professional gamblers, even if they happen to be Princes.

One of the most remarkable examples of municipality ownership in the United States is shown in the town of Edinburgh, Ind. Incandescent electric lights are furnished to residences for 15 cents a month and to business houses for 20 cents a month for 16 candle power lights. Water works are also operated at an annual charge of $1 to each consumer, and a complete and perfect telephone exchange is maintained with a monthly rental of 50 cents.

Jos. Williams For Constable.

In another column in this issue will be found the announcement of Mr. Joseph F. Williams as a candidate for Constable of the Paris precinct, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Williams is the present incumbent of the office, and it would be hard to find a more efficient officer. He is fast gaining the reputation of being one of the best detectives in the State. It is hardly probable that he will have any opposition for the office of Constable.

Is Uncle Sam Unfair?

Several months since, when the Republicans had Mr. Albert Thompson of this county arrested on a trumped up charge of intimidating voters and taken to Lexington for trial before U. S. Commissioner Hill, they summoned a number of witnesses from this county. These witnesses made three separate trips to Lexington, paying their own railroad fare and hotel bills, and also seriously inconveniencing their own business. Their only recompense from the Court was the following letter, which each one of them is tenderly cherishing. It is a matter of history that Mr. Thompson was honorably acquitted of the charge brought against him:

LEXINGTON, KY.,
March 5, 1901.

My Dear Sir:—In the case of the U. S. vs. Albert Thompson, alias, etc., before U. S. Commissioner S. E. Hill at Lexington, Ky., on Nov. 1, 9 and 11, the Commissioner had summoned before him a number of witnesses in said case in excess of the number he had a right to, without first obtaining authority from the District Attorney, and the District Attorney has refused to approve the pay-roll returned by the Commissioner in this case, except as to the witnesses who were material in the trial of the case. I have sent checks to all of the witnesses that the District Attorney approved of. The following are the names of the witnesses that the District Attorney refused to approve: Chas. E. Butler, James Burk, Letcher Weather, W. W. Mitchell, T. E. Ashbrook, J. Walker Mair, Joseph Williams, Jno. Brock, Allan M. Kiser, of Paris, Ky., and H. C. Weathers, living near Lexington.

It seems a hardship that the witnesses should be compelled to lose their attendance in this case but I have no authority to pay them without the approval of the District Attorney.

Very truly yours,
A. D. JAMES, U. S. Marshal.

STORIES OF THE STAGE.

Coming Attractions, Gossip in the Lobby and Boxes.

"PRIVATE JOHN ALLEN" NOT A WAR DRAMA.

In spite of the military suggestion conveyed by the title, "Private John Allen," the attraction announced for the Grand on next Tuesday night, is not a war play. John Allen has been taunted by his political enemies with being "nothing but a Private," which he proudly affirms and turns the sublimity to his material advantage. The title becomes one to conjure with and a name which strikes terror to the hearts of his political adversaries.

While designated as a political play, there is not a line in it that is not loyal to true manhood or that is in the least offensive to the most sensitive critic. Its purpose is lofty and pure, and it has a higher purpose than mere partisanism. It places true manhood above demagoguism, the true statesman above the mere politician.

Mr. Hanford has long been recognized as one of the foremost actors of the standard drama in America, and his tours as a Shakespearean star as well as his former association with Edwin Booth, Lawrence Barrett, Julia Marlowe, Mrs. John Drew and as manager and sub-star with Thos. W. Keene, as well as his last joint starring tours with the McLean-Tyler-Hanford Company and the James-Kiddler-Hanford Company give assurance of the strength which he brings to the part of John Allen.

Mr. Joseph Jefferson comes to the Lexington Opera House Monday, April 15th, for two performances, matinee and night. He will present at the matinee "Rip Van Winkle," and at night "The Rivals." The railroads will make special rates for this occasion. The sale of seats will open April 11th at 9:30 o'clock a. m., at the opera house. The prices will range from fifty cents to two dollars. Orders for seats sent to Manager Chas. Scott will receive prompt attention.

The Peruchi-Beldini Company, which made a big hit here last season, has been booked by the management of the Grand for a three night engagement for Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week. The company is playing in Lexington this week to crowded houses every performance, and the papers are giving them splendid notices. Their specialties are the strongest of any repertoire company on the road. The prices will be 10—20—30 cents.

Bourbon County Bible Society.

The seventy-ninth annual meeting of the Bourbon County Bible Society will be held in the Christian church Sunday, March 17th, at 7:30 p. m. The meeting will be addressed by Rev. Chas. Hemphill, D. D., of Louisville; subject: "The Bible as a Factor in our Civilization."

Riley Johnson.

BIG CONFLAGRATION.

The Entire City of Cloverport, Wiped Out by Fire.

The town of Cloverport, comprising 2,000 people, in Breckinridge county, witnessed yesterday one of the most dangerous and destructive fires known in that section for many years.

Six blocks on the north and six blocks on the south were totally swept by the flames. It was an old-time Chicago fire on a smaller scale.

Many families are destitute of homes and hundreds of men are thrown out of employment.

The entire loss is estimated to be $400,000, covered with insurance by half the amount. There were twenty-six dwellings and thirty-six business houses consumed.

Notice.

To Policy Holders in Old Line Companies: Beware of the confidence game played by the bogus Insurance Agent, who wants to do you the favor of switching you from your company to his. All companies write numerous plans of insurance and every plan costs a different price. You get value received for any plan you buy, from any Old Line Company. When the confidence man shows you a plan differing from the one you have, which is part of the game, and should you prefer this particular plan write to the Agent or Company who insured you and get it, and thereby save what you paid. Don't be an easy mark. There are millions of dollars lost each year by policy holders being duped by confidence men.

GIFFORD MARIE CO.

REV. MR. A. GABRIEL, who has been holding a series of successful meetings in Louisville during the past two weeks, will fill his pulpit in the Baptist church next Sunday morning.

Charles B. Hanford's production of "Private John Allen" Tuesday night, will be distinguished by some of the most beautiful stage pictures of Southern home life since "Alabama".

Pointer Dog Lost.

Brown color, with white spot on breast; both fore feet white. Had on leather collar with nickel plate attached. Return to Benj Perry.

REMEMBER PLACE AND DATE.—Busy and skillful hands are now employed in fashioning the dainty creations that will be displayed at Mrs. Corne Watson's millinery display on April 3 and 4. Miss Margaret Fallon, the expert trimmer, has arrived from Chicago, and is in charge of the trimming department.

Mrs. Watson, as usual, employs the best talent she can secure, and as a result has the confidence of her customers.

Remember the date of the Spring display—April 3 and 4. Also remember Mrs. Watson is now located in the Nipert block.

A well-founded Southern comedy-drama based upon love, honor, political intrigue and personal war is the new play, "Private John Allen" to be gone Tuesday night at the Grand.

Badly Scalded.

Mrs. Kate Chambers, of Duncan Avenue, while walking across the floor at her home the other day, with a kettle of hot water, stumbled and fell spilling the boiling water over her hands and arms, severely scalding them.

Attention, Indians.

The regular council fire of Maunee Tribe No. 65, Imp. O. B. M., will be kindled to-night at the seventh run, thirtieth breath, at A. O. U. W. Hall. There will be work in the Adoption Degree, and it is very important that every brave should be present.

School Items.

The Harrods' Creek school district (white) has been abolished. A portion of it will be given to North Middletown and a portion to Spears Mill district. The school house will be sold, and the money it yields given back to the tax payers of the district. Bids for the purchase of the house will be sent to Mr. Warren Rogers within the next thirty days, and that bid which is best for the tax payers will be accepted.

An Imposing Spectacle.

Probably the most imposing spectacle ever witnessed by Kentuckians will take place at Centerville in a few days, the occasion being the transferring of the postoffice from the present incumbent, Miss Mattie Boyd, a cripple but, alas, a Democrat, to J. C. Montgomery, a Republican. A prominent Republican official, who engineered the job in Washington, will act as master of ceremonies, and a photographer will make a series of photographs of the proceedings, so they can be handed down to posterity. A grand barbecue will be spread in the adjacent woods, and everybody, especially those who believe in that kind of dirt work, are invited to attend and have a good time.

Of Interest To The Ladies.

Manager Stivers, of the Bourbon Bowling Alleys, has had some elegant invitations issued from The News Rooms, in which the ladies of Paris are invited to visit the bowling alleys every Friday afternoon from 1:30 to 4 o'clock. During these hours the alleys are placed at their disposal free. This liberal offer on the part of Mr. Stivers has been taken advantage of quite freely of recent Fridays by the ladies, and some rare sport is being had.

The Smartest Baby.

Two uptown married ladies were comparing the smartest tricks of their offspring the other day. One said her little girl talked when she was a year old; another said that her baby boy could say "papa and mamma," when he was ten months old. An old bachelor, who was in the next room trying to read, then "chipped in" and said that he had read in the Bible that Job cursed the day he was born. That settled it, and the ladies adjourned.

Announcement.

I have the honor to announce the appearance of America's eminent actor, Mr. Charles B. Hanford, at the Grand Tuesday, March 19th, in a new comedy-drama, "Private John Allen."

Mr. Hanford will be assisted by Miss Marie Drofna, an admirable company. The play will be mounted with new and special scenery, appropriate to the atmosphere of the story, and I have no hesitancy in saying that the engagement of this superior attraction will prove here, as elsewhere, the most notable and enjoyable of the season. Owing to the unusual interest the coming of an attraction of such excellence will excite, an early selection of seats is advisable. Very truly,
R. S. PORTER, Mgr. Grand.

SITE IS SELECTED.

Building Committee Select Site For New Christian Church.

The committee, consisting of Messrs. J. W. Davis, J. T. Hinton and J. W. McClintock, who were appointed to purchase a site upon which to erect a new place of worship for the members of the Christian Church in this city, yesterday closed a deal for the purchase of the J. M. Hughes property on High street, for $7,000. As soon as plans are selected work will begin on the new edifice, which will be within thirty days, and when completed it will be one of the handsomest and best appointed church buildings in the State.

The old church property will probably be sold in the near future. It is one of the oldest buildings of this denomination in the State, being erected in 1838. Some of the most brilliant men of their times have occupied its pulpits, and its passing away will be looked upon by the older residents as a loss of an old friend. Elder John S. Sweeney, postmaster at Paris, was pastor for thirty-two years, and before him were Elders Walk, Shackelford, Raines, Gonoe and others.

Circuit Court.

The Bourbon Circuit Court has been in session today, after a visit to the penitentiary on the bench and Prosecuting Attorney Franklin at his post, assisted by County Attorney Dandon. The following judgments have been returned by the Grand Jury up to date:

Lon Glenn, willful and malicious shooting.
Chas. Coleman, striking with deadly weapon. His trial has been set for the fourteenth day of the term.
Henry Berry, alias Green, James Hicks, Wm. Simpson, robbery.

The following cases have been disposed of:
Henry Berry pleaded guilty to robbery and was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary.

James Hicks pleaded guilty to the same offense and received a sentence of five years in the penitentiary.
Wm. Simpson who was implicated in the same offense, had the indictment against him dismissed and he was ordered returned to the insane asylum.

Edward Ward, charged with house-breaking, was acquitted on peremptory instructions from the Judge. The only evidence against him was that of young Marks, who was an accomplice, and whose evidence could not be used against Ward.

Wm. Augustus Marks, who pleaded guilty to house-breaking, was on recommendation of the Grand Jury, sentenced to the House of Reform until he is twenty-one years old. He is now sixteen.

Frank Jones, engaging in business without a license, was fined $200.
Sam Combs, setting up and operating a game of craps, $500 fine and one year in penitentiary.

Allie Garrett, maintaining a nuisance in Millersburg, $300.
John Fields, conducting game of craps, $300.

Ore Bowles, unlawful cutting and wounding, acquitted.

Lizzie Jackson, suffering gaming, $200.
Wm. S. Grannon, in making application for admission to the Bourbon bar, filed certificate of Judge H. C. Smith as to his honesty, probity and good demeanor as required by law. The Court appointed the following committee to conduct his examination: Claude M. Thomas, T. E. Ashbrook and R. C. Talbot.

He Wanted to See the Sights.
Officer James Mernaugh received notification Wednesday morning last, to look out for a runaway boy by the name of Orie Leath, who it was thought was heading this way, and would arrive on the 3:30 train from Richmond, where his father resides. Mr. Mernaugh first thought he would take a baby buggy to the train and wheel the youngster down town in it, but he finally decided to carry the youngster down in his arms.

When the train arrived the runaway was found to be a strapping big lad of about eighteen, and seeming in every way to be well able to take care of himself. He was placed under arrest, but was not locked up. Mr. Mernaugh showed him the sights of the city, took him home to dinner with him, and turned him over to his papa, who arrived on the next train from Richmond.

Stock and Crop.

Joe Irvine raised on nine acre of land an average of 1,650 pounds of hemp to the acre.

At the Joshua Barton sale of horses at Cynthia's yesterday, uniformly good prices prevailed. The range was from $2 to $300.

At Bright & Co's jack sale at Danville 28 brought $3,117.50, an average of $390. Prince Napoleon brought the best price, $615. Another sold for $180, one for $300, one for $210 and two for $510.

The first 6 acres of hemp that was broken this year on R. G. Evan's farm, weighed out 2,000 lbs. to the acre, which is considered a phenomenal growth. The most of it measured from 11 to 13 feet.—Danville News.

A Chicago capitalist is making a curious deal with Kansas farmers. He buys heifer calves, which he puts out among the farmers on the shares, the agreement being that at the end of six years the farmer shall return to him for each heifer so taken one 2-year-old steer and $1 cash. It is calculated that in six years there will be an average of half a dozen animals to represent each original calf.

The average price of hogs last week, says Chicago Druggers' Journal, was 5c. higher than the previous week, 55c. higher than the last week of last December and 8c higher than the closing week of last October, being the highest week since last April, and within 15c of the top week of last year, and in fact, the top week in over six years past.

The very good shipping demand is helping the hog market wonderfully. Last week the Eastern dealers purchased 36,494 in Chicago, being the largest week's shipment in over a year.

Tuesday, Douglas Thomas sold to Sanford Talbot, a nice gelding for $275. Mrs. James Mansfield's farm of 60 acres, on Kane Ridge, has been purchased by Bruce Letton, of Millersburg, for $55 an acre. Mr. Letton sold his farm near Millersburg, of 100 acres, to Connell Bros., for $6,500 cash.
J. Hal Woodford, of near Paris, sold Tuesday, to Geo. Harding & Son, of Wanklesha, Wis., seven 3-year-old fine ewes at $30 each; to Wilson Bros., Muncie, Ind., six aged ewes at $30 each, also to same 8 yearling rams; to M. H. McNeill, Lanrel., one 4-year-old ram at $30.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Polly Cloud Graves died at the home of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. James M. Graves, in Lexington Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Her death was due to the inflection of old age, she having passed her 104th birthday on February 19.

Mrs. Graves was as a girl Miss Polly Cloud Graves, but no relation to her husband, William W. Graves, who died March 1871, eighty three years of age. She was born in Fayette county, seven miles from Lexington, on Cave Run Creek. Her father was Major John Graves, of Virginia, he having served during the revolution on LaFayette's staff. Her mother, whose mother also lived to the age of 104 years, was a Miss Margaret Cloud, of Virginia. Her mother had two sisters, one of whom was the great-grandmother of Hon. P. Wat Har-din. The other married an uncle of Leslie Combs.

Mrs. Dr. G. W. Adair, formerly of this city, died at her home in Covington suddenly Wednesday at noon, after a ten days' illness of grip. The body will be taken to Carlisle this afternoon, where the funeral will be held to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Adair was formerly Miss Mary Henry, of Carlisle. She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Roberts, of Covington, and Mrs. W. J. Browner, of New York City.

Pat McDonald, lawyer, editor and politician, died in Frankfort yesterday morning. He was about 56 years old and suffered for the last year with Bright's disease. He was one of the best known figures in Democratic State conventions and at sessions of the Legislature, where he wielded wide influence. For years he was connected with the State printing establishment and also identified with a large number of corporations. He was an intimate friend of Wm. Goebel, and was severely shocked when the latter was assassinated. He became ill the day following the tragedy and never saw a well day since.

Matrimonial.

Mr. N. A. Moore, of this county, and Miss Nannie Entry, of Olympia Springs, Bath County, were married Tuesday, the 12th inst., at 1:40 p. m., in the parlors of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clay in Mt. Sterling. Mr. Clall Ewing, of Owingsville, and Miss Bessie Shackelford, of Mt. Sterling, acted as attendants. They arrived in Paris on the 3:30 train and were entertained at supper by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Stuart at their elegant home on Mt. Airy. The friends in attendance were Messrs. E. F. Clay, Jr., Buckner Clay, Ed Owens, Stamps Moore, Spears Moore and Miss Nannie Jamason. The ceremony was performed by Eld J. S. Sweeney, of this city. After supper they drove out to their beautiful home (Don's Retreat) where they will for the present reside. Mr. Moore is a Government Storekeeper, and son of the late Dr. N. S. Moore, who was one of the most prominent citizens of Bourbon County. The bride is a daughter of Mr. C. T. Emory, of Bath County, and is a most charming young lady.

At Louisville, yesterday afternoon Mr. Robert Howe Miller, of Millersburg, was united in matrimony to Miss Gertrude W. Wainey, of Bethel. The groom is a son of Mrs. Lizzie Miller, of Millersburg, and the bride is a niece of Mrs. A. T. Forsyth, of this city.

Card From Dr. H. H. Roberts.

EDITOR BOURBON NEWS: Since arriving in Berlin I find that my stay from home will be longer than I had expected and will be unable to return to Paris in time to take part in the coming Primary, and probably not until the election is over. In such circumstances it is of course impossible for me to make a political race and for that reason, I reluctantly withdraw my name as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the office of Governor. I am deeply grateful to the many friends who were kind enough to proffer me their support, and beg through you to extend my thanks to them.
Very Respectfully,
H. H. ROBERTS.

EX-PRESIDENT HARRISON

Died, Claspings His Wife's Hand, But Unconscious, He Quietly Passed Away.

Ex-President Benjamin Harrison died at his residence in Indianapolis, a Wednesday afternoon at 4:45 o'clock. His death was quiet and painless, there being a gradual sinking until the end came, which was marked by a single gasp, for breath as life departed from the body of the great statesman. Relatives with a few exceptions, and several of his old and tried friends were at the bedside when he passed away.

None of General Harrison's children were present at his death. Neither Colonel Russell Harrison nor Mrs. McKee had reached the city, although both were hurrying on the way to the bedside of their dying parent.

Elizabeth, the little daughter, had been taken from the sickroom before the end came.
The funeral of the ex-President will take place next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services will be held in the First Presbyterian Church, of which General Harrison was a member for nearly fifty years. Rev. M. L. Haines, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will have charge of General Harrison's funeral.

It was decided at a meeting of Governor Durbin and other state officials, that the body of General Harrison should lie in state all day to-morrow in the rotunda of the capitol.

The highest honors in the power of the State of Indiana will be shown to the remains of General Harrison. The following gentlemen, members of his cabinet, will probably act as honorary pall-bearers: Secretary of the Treasury Charles W. Foster, of Indiana; Secretary of the Navy John D. Long, of Virginia; Secretary of the Navy Benjamin F. Tracy, of New York; Secretary of the Interior John W. Noble, of Louisiana; Postmaster General John W. Wamaker, of Philadelphia, and Commissioner of Agriculture Jeremiah Rusk, of Milwaukee.

General Harrison's wealth is variously estimated, public opinion rating it as high as a million dollars. Those who are best informed about the ex-President's affairs say he is worth about $200,000. At the time he was elected President he was reported to have accumulated a fortune of $125,000 from his law practice, and this has been doubled at least since that time. His fee in the Venezuelan boundary dispute, in which he represented the South American republic, was $100,000.

Present McKimley will attend the funeral of General Harrison. He will leave Washington to-night accompanied by Mrs. McKimley and Secretary Cortelyou. The party will stop at Canton and Mrs. McKimley remain there.

Former President Cleveland made the following statement on the death of former President Harrison:

"I am exceedingly moved by the sad intelligence of Mr. Harrison's death. Not one of our countrymen should for a moment fail to realize the services which have been performed in their behalf by the distinguished dead. In high public office he was guided by patriotism and devotion to duty, and in private life his influence and example were always in the direction of dignity and good citizenship. Such a career and the incidents to it should have a deep and useful impression upon every section of our National life."

An Important Meeting.

A religious gathering of much interest will be held in the Christian Church in Lexington March 26th, 27th and 28th. It is the Congress of Christian Disciples and is a national organization. Between one hundred and two hundred visitors, chiefly preachers and teachers who are deeply interested in the work, will be in attendance.

New Millinery Store.

In Mrs. Paton's store room, opposite the Fordham Hotel, L. B. Conway & Co., will open a thoroughly up-to-date millinery establishment on the 20th inst. The store room is being entirely refitted, a new front will be put in, and when completed it will be one of the prettiest places of business in the city. The new firm will have a select stock, second to none in the State. It will include a large stock of pattern hats of the latest New York and Paris styles. Miss Marie Rogers, of Louisville, has been engaged as trimmer. Miss Rogers has, for a number of years, been trimming for some of the leading and most fashionable houses of Louisville and Cincinnati, and the ladies can look forward to some elegant designs in headgear during the coming season.

Are You Rubber Tired?
If not, why not? There are a thousand reasons why you should have your vehicles rubber tired. We will not attempt to enumerate them, but will say we have the latest, up-to-date patent for putting on Hartford and Goodyear 3-wire Rubber Tires while you wait. Success you invest in it.

You Do, or You Don't Need Glasses.

The eye being a rather delicate organ, great care should be exercised in the election of proper glasses. Many believe that glasses should be restored to only when the sight becomes so defective as not to be able to do without. This is a great mistake which must be combatted. Whenever there is unmistakable evidence of the need of their aid, they should be used. A neglect of this rule sometimes produces mischief which results in serious trouble if the course be persisted in.

FROM GROCERY TO STEEL TRUST.

MADE HIMSELF INDISPENSABLE.

This is the Simple Recipe of the Head of the New Steel Combine—He began Life as a Grocery Clerk, Earning $2.50 Per Week—Why He Would Not Leave Andrew Carnegie's Employ When a Tempting Offer Came His Way.

There is a widespread belief, says the New York Press, that the man who rises suddenly from obscurity to prominence and great riches owes his success more often than not to questionable practices and unfair means. One man of whose rise in the world no such question can be raised is Charles M. Schwab, president of the newly organized steel trust. Five years ago Mr. Schwab was unknown to the world. Today the world is talking about him with great interest, wondering, guessing, surmising. Who is he? Where did he come from? What has he done that gives him such a hold on Andrew Carnegie and the power to dictate terms to a man like J. Pierpont Morgan? These are some of the questions asked about him.

Mr. Schwab is only 39 years old. Twenty-three years ago he was a grocery clerk at a salary of $2.50 a week. Last year, as president of the Carnegie company, his salary was $50,000 and 3 per cent of the company's earnings. This year, as president of the great steel trust, he will receive in the neighborhood of $100,000 for his services. His 3 per cent interest in the Carnegie company has made him a millionaire 40 times over in five years.

And he owes all this not to any man, not to questionable practices, but to his own initiative—to his determination to succeed and to his faithful observance of certain rules which he believed essential to success. Mr. Schwab believes in himself. He has "lived himself" by his boot straps from nowhere to the top of the heap. "What he has done he declares that others can do. 'There never were so many opportunities for the right kind of young men as there are today,' he says. The secret of his success may be found in this advice, which he offers to the ambitious:

That is the simple recipe of the head of the greatest industrial organization in the history of the world. That is the simple magic by which Mr. Schwab has put Aladdin himself to blush.

Mr. Schwab was born in Williamsburg, Blair county, Pa., on Feb. 18, 1862. The family moved to Loretto, Cambridge county, Pa., when he was 10 years old. As a boy he worked for neighboring farmers or drove a coach to and from Cresson, his father at one time having the contract to carry the mail between Loretto and Cresson.

The boy did not neglect school, however, but entered St. Francis' college. He was graduated at 16 and became a clerk in a grocery store at Cresson, Pa. He got $2.50 a week and his board. He worked hard all day and slept in the store all night as watchman. He was fascinated by the operations of the Edgar Thomson Steel works near by and spent his leisure moments watching the men manipulating the hot metal.

One day in the summer of 1881 Captain Jones, one of Andrew Carnegie's superintendents, dropped into the store to buy something, perhaps a plug of tobacco or a red apple.

Behind the counter was a freckle faced boy of 19, dreaming of becoming a civil engineer. He mustered up courage enough to "tackle" the big man, explain his ambition and ask for a job in the steel works. So earnest was his appeal that he forced the superintendent to give him a hearing.

Could he drive stakes? He would drive anything, answered the young man.

Would he work for $1 a day? Yes, and glad to get the chance to learn. In this way Charles M. Schwab began his career at Carnegie company. He worked with the engineering corps, but there is no evidence that he drove stakes any better than any other freckle faced boy. He kept his eyes and ears open, however, and never lost an opportunity to learn the business. When there was nothing for him to do in his own line, he took up some other man's work, just to learn how it was done.

Captain Jones was a "buster." Schwab wanted to earn his superior's good opinion and worked at a furious gait. He thought and dreamed of nothing but the steel works. In six months the boy became the assistant of Jones. In seven years he was Carnegie's chief engineer and had a "Mr." attached to his name. He built the great Homestead steel plant and was made its superintendent. He made it the largest works in the world for the production of several kinds of steel, including armor plate for ships.

The first armor plate made by the Carnegie company for the United States navy was turned out under his personal supervision. His armor plate won such a great reputation that the company received orders for European warships.

Upon the death of Captain Jones, in 1889, Mr. Schwab was called back to Braddock to become general superintendent of the Edgar Thomson works. Three years later the Homestead works were again placed under his charge, and he continued to direct

BIG WATER POWER SCHEME.

To Deliver Electrical Energy at Duluth and Superior.

Initial papers in what is one of the most ambitious and may prove to be one of the most important water power enterprises of the country have been filed at Duluth, says the New York Times. The Highland Canal and Power company filed its papers in condemnation proceedings for a water power canal 50 miles long, designed to deliver at the head of the hill above Duluth water that will generate 100,000 horsepower electrical energy every 24 hours at the rate of consumption in Duluth and at Superior.

The canal will follow swamps, water courses and lakes from north of the great "continental divide" and will drain an area of 2,500 square miles, the water from most of which now flows north to Hudson bay. The canal will be an amount far less than any calculations have shown it to ever dwindle to and providing ample for all possible losses, gives sufficient water to provide the power calculated upon. Such is the nature of the country traversed, the value of the lands taken for waterway and storage reservoirs and the character of the ground worked in that the cost of this entire system will be little more than the mere cost of the tail race of the Cataract Construction company that generates 55,000 horsepower at Niagara Falls.

The company proposes to sell power delivered at consumers' meters on a sliding scale, similar to that of the Niagara concerns, but at prices about 30 per cent less. It claims that there are about 30,000 horsepower of steam engines here and at Superior that will be glad to connect as soon as the company completes its works and that the price at which power will be furnished will soon increase this very greatly.

The canal will also serve as a thoroughfare for logs, cord wood, pulp wood and other forest products, which millions of dollars' worth now stand along its proposed line and cannot be reached except by railroads yet to be built.

Railroads reaching from Duluth to the limits of this canal scheme have vertical alignments similar to the teeth of a saw, and horizontal alignments, resembling a pig's tail. That a practically slack water canal could be built over the same course and be shorter than the roads was the discovery a year ago of a young New York engineer, a graduate of the Columbia School of Mines, named Frank Cooke. With but two low locks and with a current of one or two miles an hour this canal would deliver water within two miles of Duluth harbor at a height of 705 feet above the harbor, and the fall would generate enormous power at remarkably low cost.

Kaiser Wilhelm in Examen.
Mr. Herbert Herkimer's portrait in enamel of the kaiser is being discussed in artistic quarters, says the St. James Gazette. Very few have been privileged to view this work, which is spoken of as being a most marvelous likeness. It is a work, so far, without parallel and may be said to be absolutely imperishable. The labor involved has been simply immense, the picture being made up on account of its size—it stands six feet high—of 11 different plates of copper, each of which had to be fired separately, most of them many times, and then joined to their neighbors so neatly as to be quite imperceptible as a distinct piece of work. Mr. Herkimer had actually to grind his enamel himself and make repeated experiments to get the tints required, while over a hundred different firing operations have taken place. Some of the plates buckled in the furnace and had to be done over and over again, so that it will really be seen that the artist's labor has been of the most arduous nature.

Odd Decision in Hunting Suit.
A recent suit before a justice of the peace at New London, Wis., involved the question of ownership between two hunters of bear meat. One of the hunters discovered the bear in its den and was trailing it when another hunter shot the bear and claimed the ownership. Neither of the hunters was aware of the other's presence in the woods before the bear was shot. The second hunter sold the meat to a meat dealer, and thereupon the first hunter began a replevin suit against the dealer. The case was tried before a jury, and the verdict was that the carcass was the legal property of the man who first discovered the bear and not of the man who killed it.

Scrofula

THE OFFSPRING OF HEREDITARY BLOOD TAIN.

Scrofula is but a modified form of Blood Poison and Consumption. The parent who is tainted by either will see in the child the same disease manifesting itself in the form of swollen glands of the neck and throat, catarrh, weak eyes, offensive sores and abscesses and sometimes white swelling—sure signs of Scrofula. There may be no external signs for a long time, for the disease develops slowly in some cases, but the poison is in the blood and will break out at the first favorable opportunity. S. S. S. cures this wasting, destructive disease by first purifying and building up the blood and stimulating and invigorating the whole system.

J. M. Seale, 115 Public Square, Nashville, Tenn., says: "Ten years ago my daughter fell and cut her forehead. From this wound the glands on the side of her face became swollen and burst. Some of the best doctors here and elsewhere attended her without any benefit. We decided to try S. S. S., and a few bottles cured her entirely."

S. S. S. makes new and pure blood to nourish and strengthen the body, and is a positive and safe cure for Scrofula. It overcomes all forms of blood poison, whether inherited or acquired, and no remedy so thoroughly and effectively cleanses the blood. If you have any blood trouble, or your child has inherited some blood taint, take S. S. S. and prevent the disease doing further damage.

Send for our free book and write our physicians about your case. We make no charge whatever for medical advice.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

See that you get the original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve when you ask for it. The genuine is a certain cure for piles, sores and skin diseases. W. T. Brooks.

Their promptness and their pleasant effects make DeWitt's Little Early Risers most popular little pills wherever known. I can't say enough for them. Perfect for liver and bowel troubles. W. T. Brooks.

Counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve are liable to cause poisoning. Always leave them alone. The original has the name DeWitt's upon the box and wrapper. It is a harmless and healing salve for skin diseases. Unequalled for piles. W. T. Brooks.

Like Oliver Twist, children ask for money when given One Minute Cough Cure. Mothers endorse it highly for croup. It quickly cures all coughs and colds and every throat and lung trouble. It is a specific for grippe and asthma and has long been a well known remedy for whooping cough. W. T. Brooks.

To Cure a Cold in One Day. Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c. (35c-1yr)

Robert K. Watts, of Salem, Mo., writes: "I have been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years and have been treated with all the leading physicians and have tried all remedies suggested, without relief. Finally I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and less than two bottles completely cured me and I am sound and well." Clark & Kenney.

Prof. Trism, of Louisiana, Md., suffered terribly from neuralgia of the stomach and indigestion for thirteen years and after all the doctors failed to cure him they fed him on morphine. A friend advised the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and after taking a few bottles of it he says, "I cured me entirely. I can't say too much for Kodol Dyspepsia Cure." It digests what you eat. W. T. Brooks.

LACHAPPE coughs often continue for months and sometimes lead to fatal results after the patient is supposed to have taken the danger past. Foley's Honey and Tar affords positive protection and security from these coughs.
